Wet & Dry - Drink Today

Al Capone | 190,000

This legendary mix of Canadian whiskey, cointreau, sparkling wine with a dash of Angostura bitters is inspired by Al Capone - America's most notorious gangster. Also known as "Scarface," Al Capone rose to infamy as the leader of the Chicago Outfit during the Prohibition era. Before being sent to Alcatraz Prison in 1934 for a tax evasion conviction, he had amassed a personal fortune estimated at $100 million as the head of the infamous crime syndicate.

Liquid Gold | 160,000

Premium vodka, Galliano, cream de cacao, topped with ginger beer espuma. Liquid Gold was formed by Ray and Ellie, who met auditioning to play in Babe Ruth, a group that released four albums between 1972 and 1975. Both of them worked on the band's last album, Kid Stuff.

Vote Dry | 160,000

Whiskey, Martini, elderflower, cucumber, a squeeze of lime and lots of love. Inspired by the prohibition period starting on 17 January 1920 when America voted "dry", this cocktail contains smoked whiskey and extra dry Martini. A lollipop and orange peel rounds up the experience.

Instant Sleep | 160,000

Premium dry gin, Campari, raspberry, squeeze of lemon topped with Red Bull for an instant sleep. This concoction is inspired by a young spirit dancing all night long until sunrise.

Mint Julep | 160,000

A cocktail made from a mixture of bourbon, powdered sugar, water and mint, is often associated with horse racing. It has been the official drink of the Kentucky Derby for almost a century. A legend claims that the mint julep arrived in America when a man was searching near the Mississippi River for water to add to his bourbon. When he saw mint growing wild, he decided to drop a few leaves into his libation—ta da! Mint julep. Our version is made from premium vodka, peach fruit, lychee fruit, mint mojito syrup mint leaves.

Smoke on the Water | 160,000

Bourbon whiskey, white sugar, dash of Angostura bitters topped with ginger beer foam. Smoke on the Water is a song by the rock band, Deep Purple. It was one of the 500 greatest songs of the century. This is our liquefied version of the song made of smoke-infused whiskey and the vibrancy of deep purple bitter. Drink up!

Chicago Smuggler | 160,000

Premium vodka, liquid cranberry, grape juice, homemade syrup, and passion fruit bubbles in the can. This ice-cold tasty cocktail is inspired by the Smugglers' route where alcohol was brought to the cities.

Golden Time | 160,000

Galliano brandy, triple sec, orange juice and fresh milk. Step back in time to the golden days of the 1920s and enjoy the breathtaking Bali atmosphere while sipping this sweet and delicious concoction to create your golden time to remember.

Being Reasonable

Everyone has a right to make money. A sign posted at a local pub reads "Be safe: Don't drink and drive. But please still drink."

Bar Signs

A bar in our neighborhood got lots of interesting traffic. Cars swerved into the parking lot, and the drivers would run inside only to reappear minutes later looking confused. One reason might have been the sign outside: "Free Beer, Topless Bartenders, and False Advertising."

THERE is no better known name and trade-mark identified with Havana Cigars than HENRY CLAY. This name has for several generations stood for fine quality only, and has without doubt had as much influence in building up the reputation of Havana Cigars as any one brand known to the public.

Here are six new shapes and sizes - original and distinguished! They have the refined "Regata" style, but modified from the extreme pointed shape. The skill, the experience, and the traditions of a century are combined in this new production from the famous HENRY CLAY factory. A selection of tobacco has been made for these six new "NAVY" sizes from our own plantations that is unapproachable, for they are mild and yet have that rare aromatic quality so prized in the finer Havana Cigars. They are made in the original HENRY CLAY factory and by the same workmen who have made HENRY CLAY cigars for a generation.

In addition to possessing these characteristic traits of quality and style these new shapes and these new names are given them to aid the smoker to identify the different sizes and fix in his mind their grading prices. They are now for sale by the leading importers and retailers of fine cigars in all the large cities in the United States.
